BUSINESS HOURS

Business days are Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., except federal banking holidays. There is also a business day "cut off" time for Internet Banking and Bill Payment of 8:00 p.m. EST. Transactions made after that time (or any time on the weekend or holiday) are processed on the next business day.

DOCUMENTATION

All transactions performed with Internet Banking or Bill Payment services will be listed on your deposit statement. You will receive a monthly statement for your checking or money market account and at least a quarterly statement for your savings account(s).

PREAUTHORIZED PAYMENTS

If you have told us in advance to make regular payment out of your account, you can stop any of these payments. Here is how:

1. Cancel all outstanding transfer orders you have scheduled through Internet Banking or Bill Payment services.
2. Notify us in time for us to receive your request 3 business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing and get it to us within 14 days after you call. There may be a separate fee for each stop payment order you give.

If you order us to stop one of these payments 3 business days or more before the transfer is scheduled, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

FINANCIAL INSTITUTION'S LIABILITY

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance.

1. If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer.
2. If you have an overdraft line and the transfer would go over the credit limit.
3. If the service, your equipment, the software, or any communications link is not working properly and you know or have been advised by us, about the malfunction before you attempted to execute the transaction or, in the case of a automatic or recurring transaction, at the time the transaction should have occurred.
4. If you have not provided the service with the correct name, address or account information for Bill Payment payee's.
5. If a payee mishandles, delays posting or refuses a payment.
6. If the transfer or hold is restricted by legal process or holds.
7. If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire or flood) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.
8. If your service has been terminated for any reason.

CONFIDENTIALITY

We may disclose information to third parties about your account or the transactions you make where it is necessary for completing transactions or resolving errors involving Internet Banking or Bill Payment services. We may also disclose information to verify the existence and condition of your account for third parties, such as a credit bureau or a merchant or in order to comply with governmental agency rules, court or administrative agency orders, or other applicable law or as described in our separate Privacy Policy.

UNAUTHORIZED TRANSFERS

An unauthorized transfer is a transfer by a person who does not have actual, implied, or apparent permission and is a transfer that does not benefit you. A transfer by a joint account holder or other person with an interest in your account is not an unauthorized transfer.

a. Consumer Liability

Generally, Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your codes have been lost or stolen. Telephoning us at 1-800-562-4880 is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit). If you tell us within 2 business days, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used your codes without your permission.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your codes, and we can prove we could have stopped someone from using your codes without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

Additionally, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or extended hospital stay) kept you from notifying us we may extend the time period.

TERMINATION OR DISCONTINUATION

In the event you wish to discontinue the service, you must notify us in writing. Notification can be faxed to 906-635-6293 or mailed to Central Savings Bank, 511 Bingham Avenue, Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49783.

Since service cancellation request can take up to 10 days to process, you should cancel all outstanding payment or transfer orders in addition to notifying us of your desire to terminate the service. We will not be liable for payments or transfers not cancelled or payments made due to the lack of proper notification of your desire to cancel service.

Central Savings Bank reserves the right to terminate your use of the services in whole or in part at any time. Upon termination of service you will be responsible for all future payments.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS

1. Telephone us at 1-800-562-4880.
2. E-mail us at csbbank@sault.com
3. Write to us at Central Savings Bank, 511 Bingham Avenue, Sault Ste. Marie, MI 49783.

User must notify us via one of the above means if User believes there is an error or problem with their statement or if User needs more information about a transfer listed on the statement. We must hear from the User no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

Please include the following information in your correspondence.

1. User's name and account number.
2. Describe the error or transfer that is in question, and explain as clearly as possible why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.

3. Dollar amount of suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will tell you the results of our investigation within 10 business days after we hear from you, and will correct any error promptly. If more research is needed, we may take up to 45 days to investigate the complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you may have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days we may not credit your account.

If we decide there was no error, we will mail you a written explanation within three business days after we finish the investigation. You may ask for copies of documents which we used in our investigation.
